W. S. Goodwin, who took the remains of his brother's Ralph and Joe to Madison Wisconsin last month, returned Saturday evening to Candelaria where he intends to reside.

A clean butcher shop goes far towards keeping the meat fresh. Flies will not gather where things are clean. M. C. Gardner, Jr., has just such a market, where the finest lamb, beef, mutton, pork, sausage, etc., can be secured at any time.

Sandrock and Millard, practical plumbers and gasfitters, have opened a shop in Dick Mills' old stand South Carson St., and propose to do all work in their line at prices so low that you don't have to mortgage your property, to pay them. Stoves and ranges and all kinds of tinware on hand, at very reasonable rates. Razors and scissors sharpened. j31tf.

New Furniture Store.

Miller & Co., furniture dealers and upholsterers, have opened and equipped a store opposite the Post-office building, and will sell anything in their line with but a small margin for profit. Some splendid bedroom sets are now on the way. Give them a call.

For the next 30 days a reduction of 10 to 20 per cent. on every price of goods at Golden's to reduce the immense stock of goods on hand. Call and secure bargains. m6

The Dairy Restaurant

Under the new management will be conducted in a neat style, and the bill of fare will be unsurpassed. 112 ft. C. V. WILEY, Prop.

Potatoes at one cent per pound, cabbage two, butter beans five cents, and seed corn five cents, delivered to any part of the city, by Frank Pine. Enquire at Dias' hay yard. m3,lm

G. Gale, an expert banjolist is in the city, and will take a limited number of pupils to teach to play that instrument. Apply at Mrs. Enright's, east of Opera House.

For the next 60 days I will sell Merchants Pipes, Brier Pipes and all other kinds for cost; also Knives, Razors, etc. I have a small line of stationery which will be sold for cost. I have 30,000 cigars that I will sell at wholesale prices by the box; also 300 lbs. of smoking and chewing tobacco and many other things too numerous to mention.

My goods will be all marked so that all will be treated alike. Goods must be sold; come one, come all. G. S. HAWKINS.

BOODLERS LISTED.

Twenty-one Members of the California Legislature on the Rack.

A special dispatch to the APPEAL last night says there is great excitement in Sacramento, over the discovery of a plot to elect Felton, to the U. S. Senatorship, by purchasing the requisite number of votes. The names of twenty-one members of the California Legislature are now in the hands of the authorities, and the boodlers dare not deliver the goods to Felton.

The plot has been thoroughly exposed. The last ballot stood, Estee 45, Felton 38, the rest scattering. The Felton men were to receive $2,000 each.

Death of John Bath.

John Bath, a pioneer, and for many years a rancher in this valley died at his house after a long illness. He had been suffering from Bright's disease for some time, and death was known to be inevitable. John Bath was widely known and respected, and was a very successful farmer.

The funeral will take place from his late residence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

St. Patrick's Day.

Yesterday the Sons of Erin celebrated St. Patrick's Day in a quiet and orderly manner. There was no over-indulgence in intoxicating beverages and Ed. Sweeney's green flag was unfurled alongside the stars and stripes. Nearly everybody in town wore a green ribbon.

A Gentle Reminder

The APPEAL collector will be around today to collect for the paper, which has been left at the desk of each member every morning. You don't have to punge, but the fact that you have received the paper, entitles the collector to a hearing at least.

Jay Gould's Opinion

New York, March 16.—Jay Gould, interviewed, says: "There will be no monetary stringency this spring. The movement of currency West will not, I think, be of sufficient magnitude to interfere materially with the natural sequence of affairs."

ALL SORTS.

What's the matter with a baseball team in Carson?

Spring has opened; Abe Cohn sold a straw hat yesterday.

Fresh fish, crabs, and shrimps on Tuesdays and Fridays at Tennants.

Yesterday the Mt. Diablo shipped six bars of bullion, valued at $6,339.

The citizens of Soda Springs have held several meetings for the purpose of raising funds to build a dance hall.

Melville Tobriner and Florence Keith were awarded the medals in Miss Bardenwerper's class for best essays Monday.

The Young Mens' Institute of this city gave the first annual ball last evening at the Armory, and all who attended had a merry time.

Tom Anderson's boxing and athletic academy is becoming more popular daily, and under his instruction several of the young gentlemen are becoming very expert with the mittens.

The Inyo Marble Co. is shipping six to eight carloads of marble every week. One block weighed 3,500 pounds, the largest ever taken from the quarry, passed through Carson last week.

A traveling man was found dead in bed in a Philadelphia hotel, and the Coroner decided that he died from asphyxiation by gas, notwithstanding there was no gas jet in the room. His roommate was a life insurance agent, and had evidently been talking business in his sleep. A man falling asleep during a session of the Nevada Legislature would have received the same verdict.
